DISHONESTY OF EMPLOYEES

LOSS OF DOCUMENTS

Subject to an Excess of £100 each and every claim or loss, this Certificate will also cover the Insured up to a maximum of £100,000 for any reasonable costs and expenses incurred with Underwriters' written consent in replacing or restoring any Document which is lost, damaged or destroyed during the Certificate Period. It is further understood and agreed this Certificate is extended to afford cover in respect of costs incurred (subject to the Insured bearing the first £50 of each and every claim hereunder and for the purpose of this extension Underwriters costs shall be deemed to be part of such claim falling under this extension) in prosecuting any claim for an injunction and/or for damages arising out of those circumstances referred to in the above paragraph notified to Underwriters during the Certificate Period stated in the Schedule provided always that Underwriters shall not be required to incur any or further obligation to meet such costs under this extension where the Insured's course of action is not one which it would be in all circumstances reasonable to pursue. In the event of any dispute arising between Underwriters and the Insured as to the reasonableness of pursuing any such course of action the opinion of a Queen's Counsel to be mutually agreed between the Insured and Underwriters shall be obtained and his decision shall be binding.

JOINT VENTURES/CONSORTIUMS

It is understood and agreed that the indemnity provided by this Certificate shall apply to claims made against the Insured within the Certificate period as a direct result of negligence on the part of the Insured in performing their obligations accepted under Collateral Warranties, Duty of Care Agreements or similar Agreements but only in so far as the benefits of such Warranties or Agreements are not greater or longer lasting than those given to the party with whom the Insured originally contracted and subject to the following Exceptions, unless specifically agreed by Underwriters:-

- (i) acceptance of or guarantee of fitness for purpose where this or similar appears as an express term;
- (ii) any express guarantee including any relating to performance and/or the period of a project;
- (iii) any express contractual penalty;

Nevertheless in the event that the Insured gives a Warranty or Agreement beyond the above exclusions indemnity hereunder shall be limited by the extent and application of such exclusions.

None of the foregoing limitations or exclusions shall apply to liability which would have attached to the Insured in the absence of any such Warranties or Agreements.

It is however agreed by Underwriters that where Terms of Appointment/Engagement, Collateral Warranties or Duty of Care Agreements have been advised to Underwriters of any previous period, providing such Underwriters have not rejected such documents and providing any requirements by those Underwriters have been complied with by the Insured, Underwriters agree to accept that provisos (i-vi) above shall not apply to restrict liability which arises out of these contracts.

Notwithstanding the above, it is understood and agreed that the Indemnity provided by this Certificate shall apply to cover the liability of the Insured arising under a decision of an adjudicator relating to claims made against the Insured referred to adjudication in accordance with an adjudication clause contained in a contract ("the Contract") to comply with the Housing Grants, Construction & Regeneration Act 1996 or other similar adjudication clause.

Provided always that as a condition precedent to coverage being afforded hereunder the Insured undertakes additionally to comply with both A and B as follows:

A CONDITIONS

It is a condition precedent to Underwriters' liability under this Certificate that the Insured agrees:

- i. to immediately notify Underwriters within 48 hours of receipt of any "notice of intention to adjudicate" or of the service by the Insured of any "notice of intention to adjudicate" in circumstances which will lead to or are likely to lead to a claim against the Insured being dealt with as a part of the adjudication.

- iv. to meet any request, direction or timetable of the adjudicator;
- v. to satisfy Underwriters that any liability incurred under an adjudicator's decision for which indemnity is being sought, is as a direct result of negligence by the Insured in the conduct of their professional activities;
- vi. not to disclose to anyone the existence of this Certificate without Underwriters' prior written consent.
- vii. to institute legal proceedings or arbitration in accordance with the terms of the original contract to challenge or reopen or stay the enforcement of such adjudicator's decision if reasonably requested so to do by Underwriters and to allow Underwriters to appoint appropriate advisers as they may deem necessary to have conduct of such proceedings if appropriate, any such steps made by the Insured shall be at the Underwriters expense, but subject always to the application of the excess;
- viii. not to agree to accept the decision of the adjudicator as finally determining the dispute without the prior consent in writing of Underwriters.

B CONDITIONS RELATING TO THE CONTRACT

- (i) The adjudication provisions in the Contract shall:
 - (a) provide that the adjudicator must be independent of the parties to the dispute;
 - (b) not allow for the adjudicator's decision to finally determine the dispute;
 - (c) not allow the adjudicator to disregard the legal entitlements of the parties in order to reach a decision based on commercial considerations.
- (ii) The Contract must not place any conditions upon the timing of commencement of legal or arbitration proceedings (for the sake of clarity, this does not apply to adjudication proceedings).

Any dispute or difference arising hereunder between the Insured and Underwriters shall be referred to the arbitration of a Queen's Counsel to be agreed upon by both parties or in the absence of agreement by a QC nominated by the Chairman of the Bar Council. The Underwriters agree to pay the costs of such referral except in instances where Indemnity has been denied and the QC upholds such decision. Where Indemnity applies, coverage will also include the Insured's liability for the adjudicator's fee.

Such notice having been given, any subsequent claim made against the Insured or loss sustained by them arising out of that circumstance shall be deemed to have been first made or sustained during the Certificate Period.

NOTE: The Civil Procedure Rules enable the Court to impose severe costs sanctions on litigants who act unreasonably either before or after the commencement of proceedings whether or not the litigant in question is successful in its case. Pre-action Protocols will set standards by which the reasonableness of the litigant's conduct will be judged. In order to try to ensure that the requirements of the rules in any Protocol are met notifications must be made to Underwriters immediately that a claim is made and before a response is given to the claimant. As this is a condition precedent to Underwriters liability under the Certificate non-compliance with it entitles Underwriters to refuse to provide indemnity in respect of the relevant claim.

- (b) (i) The Insured shall not admit liability for or settle or make or promise any payment in respect of any claim which may be the subject of indemnity hereunder or incur any costs or expenses in connection therewith without the written consent of the Underwriters who if they so wish shall be entitled to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured the defence and/or settlement of any such claim. In doing so Underwriters may conduct the defence and/or settlement as they, in their absolute discretion, think fit. This right will include, but is not limited to, the right to commit the Insured's excess to any settlement and to make admissions in respect of the whole claim, or any part of the claim, or in respect of any issue on which the claim, or part of it, depends.
- (ii) The Insured shall at all times give to Underwriters and/or their duly appointed representatives all such information, co-operation and assistance as Underwriters may reasonably require. Insofar as the claim is subject to the Civil Procedure Rules such assistance will extend, but is not limited to the provision of signed statements or depositions as may be required to facilitate compliance with all, and any, civil procedure rules, practice directions and pre-action protocols as may be issued and approved from time to time by the Head of Civil Justice. By way of example, and without limitation, the Insured's obligations will include, inter-alia:
- (a) The provision of full and prompt information, instructions, and or assistance to Underwriters or their duly appointed representatives;

4. AGREEMENT TO PAY CLAIMS: Underwriters agree to pay claims which may arise under this Certificate without requiring the Insured to dispute any claim unless a Queen's Counsel or lawyer of comparable standing in the territory concerned (to be mutually agreed upon by Underwriters and the Insured) advise that the same could be contested with a reasonable prospect of success by the Insured and the Insured consents to such claim being contested, but such consent is not to be unreasonably withheld. In the event of any dispute arising between the Insured and the Underwriters as to what constitutes an unreasonable refusal to contest a claim at Law, the President for the time being of the Professional Body of which the Insured is a member shall nominate a referee to decide this point (only) and the decision of such referee shall be binding on both parties. In the event of the Insured not being a member of a Professional Body, the President for the time being of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators shall nominate a referee to adjudicate as aforementioned.
5. SUBROGATION: If any payment is made under this Certificate in respect of a claim hereunder Underwriters are thereupon subrogated to all the Insured's rights of recovery thereto however Underwriters shall not exercise any such rights against any employee or former employee of the Insured unless the claim has been brought about or contributed to by any dishonest fraudulent criminal or malicious act of the employee, it being understood that Underwriters shall at all times retain all the Insured's rights of recovery against any person or party who is not an employee of the Insured or former employee of the Insured.

6. FRAUDULENT CLAIMS: If the Insured shall make or refer any claim knowing the claim to be false or fraudulent, as regards amount or otherwise, this Certificate shall become void and all claims thereunder shall be forfeited
7. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY BY UNDERWRITERS: In the event of Underwriters at any time being entitled to avoid this Certificate ab initio by reason of any materially inaccurate or misleading information given to Underwriters in the Proposal Form or at any time during the negotiations leading to the inception of this Certificate or as a result of failure to disclose material facts before the conclusion of the Certificate or for any other reason at law, Underwriters may at their election instead of avoiding this Certificate ab initio give notice to the Insured that they regard this Certificate as of full force and effect save that there shall be excluded from the indemnity afforded hereunder any claim which has arisen or which may arise and which is related to circumstances which ought to have been disclosed to the Underwriters in the Proposal Form or which arises out of materially inaccurate or misleading information given to Underwriters. This Certificate shall then continue as if the same had been specifically endorsed ab initio excluding the particular claim or possible claim referred to in the said notice.
8. INTERPRETATION CLAUSE: Notwithstanding the Jurisdiction Limits contained herein, any dispute in respect of the interpretation or application of this Certificate, or its terms, conditions and exclusions, will be subject to United Kingdom Courts.
9. THIRD PARTY ACT 1999 PROVISIONS CLAUSE: It is hereby noted and agreed that the terms of this Certificate will only be enforceable by the named Insured(s). A person who is not a named Insured has no rights under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Certificate but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that act.
10. OBSERVANCE OF CERTIFICATE PROVISIONS: Without limiting the scope of any of the specific conditions of this Certificate it shall be a condition precedent to Underwriter's liability that the Insured duly observe and fulfil the terms, conditions and endorsements of the Certificate in so far as they relate to anything required to be done.
11. DUTY OF THE INSURED: Commencing with the Insured's Proposal for this Certificate and throughout the Certificate period the Insured is under a continuing duty to disclose as soon as reasonably practicable all material changes in information supplied to Underwriters as part of the proposal for this Certificate.
12. TAX: The Insured will pay any tax due on the premium in accordance with current legislation.
13. CHOICE OF LAW: There is a choice of law applicable to this Certificate but unless Underwriters agree otherwise English law will apply.
